

RADA

Archive Enquires

Access

The RADA Archive includes prospectuses, programmes, photographs, diaries, class lists, student files, and other ephemera. The majority is not catalogued and only a small percentage has been digitised.

Enquires are dealt with as promptly as possible, usually within five working days. Charges will only apply if there is an excessive need to photocopy/digitise documents or images.

archive@rada.ac.uk

Requests from graduates, relatives, researchers

graduates@rada.ac.uk

The Library Manager/Archivist and Graduate Engagement Co-ordinator will share information where possible in accordance with GDPR.

Commercial users

marketing@rada.ac.uk

Due to the multiple rights present in most of the Archive, and the confidential nature of some of the collections, commercial use is limited.

The Library Manager/Archivist and Marketing Director together will enable commercial use of the collections where possible.

Academic users, researchers or biographers

library@rada.ac.uk

Academic users, researchers or biographers can consult collections by prior arrangement with the Library Manager/Archivist.

Graduate Database is available online

www.rada.ac.uk/profiles/

What is accessible

The Library Manager/Archivist is only able to provide access to records in line with data protection legislation, and as stated above at the discretion of the Library Manager/Archivist and Registrar or other senior stakeholder.