Disability

RADA does not discriminate against applicants on the grounds of sex, disability, ethnicity, religion or sexuality; and offers places solely on the basis of potential and suitability to enter the profession. The Academy has access for wheelchair users.

Applicants are encouraged to disclose any relevant health condition or disability so that we can ensure that appropriate support is in place for your audition or interview and during the course. We have considerable experience of supporting students with a wide range of disabilities and specific learning difficulties such as dyslexia and dyspraxia; students with visual and hearing loss; and mental health issues.

Should you wish to discuss this further, please contact the Admissions team on:

020 7636 7076 / admissions@rada.ac.uk

It would be helpful if you could give us any relevant information about your disability or impairment:

- Applications received without the fee will not be processed.
- Applicants who are not eligible for application fee waivers will be required to pay.
- Late applications are not considered under any circumstances.
- Please send your application form well in advance of the closing date to allow time for posting. The Academy does not accept any responsibility for postal applications received after the cut off date.
- Please ensure you use the correct postage. A4 envelopes in the UK need a 'large letter' stamp. Incorrectly paid postage is held at the mail sorting office and delays your application.

Data Protection

The information which you give will be used to enable RADA to create an electronic and paper record of your application; to enable the application to be processed; to enable the institution to compile statistics, or to assist other organisations to do so, provided that no statistical information that would identify you as an individual will be published.

Before we present your application to the interview panel, this page will be removed.

The information will be kept securely, and will not be disclosed to any external sources without your express written consent.

It will be kept no longer than necessary and will be deleted/shredded securely. If you fill out this form, you understand your information will be used to process your application and you consent to RADA holding and using your personal data for the specified purposes (as stated above).

☐ I agree to RADA using the information provided for the purposes listed above.

Application form equality monitoring

For the PgDip in Theatre Costume, RADA collects this information to help with its equality monitoring. This will not be shared with members of the initial Interview panels. It may, however, be made available to the Panel Chair/Director/Director of Technical Training at later stages of the interview process.
