Disability

RADA does not discriminate against applicants on the grounds of sex, disability, ethnicity, religion or sexuality; and offers places solely on the basis of potential and suitability to enter the profession. The Academy has access for wheelchair users.

Applicants are encouraged to disclose any relevant health condition or disability so that we can ensure that appropriate support is in place for your audition or interview and during the course. We have considerable experience of supporting students with a wide range of disabilities and specific learning difficulties such as dyslexia and dyspraxia; students with visual and hearing loss; and mental health issues.

Should you wish to discuss this further, please contact the Admissions team on:

Privacy notice

We value the privacy of all our applicants and strive to meet the highest standards in managing your personal information.

The information which you give us on this form will be used to enable RADA to process your application. It may also be used to compile statistics, or to assist other organisations to do so (principally the Office for Students), provided that no personal information that would identify you as an individual will be published. If your application is successful, this information will form part of your student record and you will have an opportunity then to consent to your personal information being shared for the purposes of managing your student status with RADA.

The information will be kept securely, and will not be disclosed to any external sources without your express written consent. Your personal data will be kept no longer than necessary and will then be disposed of securely.

Before we present your application to the audition panel, pages 5 and 6 will be removed.

You can see RADA's full privacy notice (including your rights to access, correct or erase the data we hold) at www.rada.ac.uk/privacy
