Fees for BA (Hons) in Acting

UK and EU students

Fees for UK/EU students applying for the BA (Hons) in Acting 2020-21 are £9,000*†.

You must have been resident in the UK/EU for at least three consecutive years (for purposes other than study) prior to starting the programme to qualify for the UK/EU tuition fee rate.

* Please note that fees for UK/EU students starting in 2020-21 are regulated. The fees are unlikely to be less than £9,000 unless government policy changes and new levels are set. RADA may seek to apply a higher fee of £9,250 subject to us receiving an independent teaching excellence rating. We will update this information as soon as possible.

† EU students starting in 2020-21 will be eligible for EU fees.

If you are new to higher education, you can apply for a tuition fee loan from the Government and there is a range of possible support available. For full details go to: www.rada.ac.uk/acting.

I confirm that I am a UK or EU student.

Have you been a resident in the UK/EU for the last three years?

RADA scholarship awards

If you gain a place at RADA, you may also be eligible for a scholarship award through RADA. In order to assess your eligibility, please give us an indication of your household income:

- Under £25,000  Under £43,000
 Over £43,000  I do not wish to give this information at this time

International students

You will be required to pay the full cost of your tuition for the BA (Hons) in Acting (including all fees and living costs). Fees for 2020-21 are £20,450. For international students, please note that we are likely to increase your fees year on year by a cost of living amount.

For full details and fee information please go to www.rada.ac.uk/acting.

If necessary, government loans, scholarships or sponsorship should be sought from your country of origin.

All international students MUST have funding in place and have provided the Academy with written guarantees of your ability to pay all fees and living costs prior to taking up your place at the Academy. Failure to do so may result in an offered place being withdrawn.

How do you intend to fund your study?

- Private finance
 Government loans / grants / sponsorship from my country of origin

Fees for Foundation Course in Acting

The fees for the Foundation Course in Acting for 2020-21 will be £13,600.

This is a non-accredited course which does not attract government funding. All students offered places will need to fund both the annual fee and all living costs privately. Overseas students from non-EU countries may require a visa for this course. Please refer to our website for English language requirements.

For full details please go to: www.rada.ac.uk/acting

Disability

RADA does not discriminate against applicants on the grounds of sex, disability, ethnicity, religion or sexuality; and offers places solely on the basis of potential and suitability to enter the profession. The Academy has access for wheelchair users.

Applicants are encouraged to disclose any relevant health condition or disability so that we can ensure that appropriate support is in place for your audition or interview and during the course. We have considerable experience of supporting students with a wide range of disabilities and specific learning difficulties such as dyslexia and dyspraxia; students with visual and hearing loss; and mental health issues.

Should you wish to discuss this further, please contact the Admissions team on: 020 7636 7076 / admissions@rada.ac.uk

It would be helpful if you could give us any relevant information about your disability or impairment:

Privacy notice

We value the privacy of all our applicants and strive to meet the highest standards in managing your personal information.

The information which you give us on this form will be used to enable RADA to process your application. It may also be used to compile statistics, or to assist other organisations to do so (principally the Office for Students), provided that no personal information that would identify you as an individual will be published. If your application is successful, this information will form part of your student record and you will have an opportunity then to consent to your personal information being shared for the purposes of managing your student status with RADA.

The information will be kept securely, and will not be disclosed to any external sources without your express written consent. Your personal data will be kept no longer than necessary and will then be disposed of securely.

Before we present your application to the audition panel, pages 5 and 6 will be removed.

You can see RADA's full privacy notice (including your rights to access, correct or erase the data we hold) at www.rada.ac.uk/privacy.
