Royal Academy of Dramatic Art Academic Regulations 2020-21

Appendix 1: Student Code of Conduct

How do we expect you to behave?

- 1 Treat people with courtesy, kindness and consideration. Remember that someone's experience of your actions or words is as real as your intention, so even if you do not intend to cause offence, you might do so if you are not mindful of how you speak to other people. What is 'banter' to you, might be sexual harassment to someone else.
- 2 Familiarise yourself with the Student Handbook, the Academic Regulations and Policies or any other rules and handbooks that relate to your particular course. Remember that even if you don't read them, they will still apply to you.
- 3 Turn up on time and follow RADA's protocols if you are likely to be late or you are unwell. We are strict but not unreasonable and these rules exist for the effective running of RADA and so that you establish good habits around timekeeping which will serve you well in your future profession.
- 4 Follow the health and safety guidelines. Theatres, studios and workshops are full of equipment which can be dangerous. Choreographed scenes (for example, fights) can go astray if proper guidance is not followed.
- 5 Be respectful of RADA property and that of fellow staff and students. This also means following guidelines about use of lifts and staircases to maintain the Academy in good working order for everyone.
- 6 Only eat, drink or smoke in the designated areas. You will be working with fragile costumes, props and equipment which could be ruined by your burger or juice. Again, you are being inducted into industry practices so be mindful of them.
- 7 Manage your own behaviour: we all get angry or frustrated. Don't take this out on other people or block RADA's rightful activities. Abuse, whether verbal or physical is a serious offence and will be treated accordingly.
- 8 Look at the list of misconduct and remember that RADA will always follow up complaints or allegations of misconduct. This is not an exhaustive list but gives some indication of what behaviour is unacceptable and the sanctions that can apply.
- 9 Be professional in your work at RADA. Your professional practice is part of how you are assessed in your work, or will contribute to a reference if your course is not assessed. If you are unprofessional, it will affect your performance, your marks and ultimately your own reputation.
- 10 If in doubt, just ask!

Misconduct: Types of offences, behaviours and sanctions

This is a description of types of behaviour which might be unacceptable in a student's general behaviour. Given the nature of acting, it is possible that some behaviours (for example, kissing or pushing) might be a part of training within an acting exercise or class (including voice, movement and associated disciplines), but the general principle of consent remains. Within that context a student is usually considered to be consenting to behaviour that might be otherwise unacceptable outside the class. Should any complaint or disciplinary action be brought, the context, as in all cases, may be relevant to determining whether misconduct has taken place.

Type of offence	Examples of unacceptable behaviour	Examples of sanctions (note these are all possible sanctions, they do not relate to the action on the same line in the 'Examples of unacceptable behaviour' box.
